

Honour for Guwahati teacher

A STAFF REPORTER

Calcutta: Manisha Khetrapal from Kendriya Vidyalaya in Guwahati emerged the regional topper for the Northeast in the fourth edition of the CENTA Teaching Professionals' Olympiad (TPO), India's national competition for teachers.

"I'm extremely happy to be the Regional Topper of CENTA TPO 2018. An exam like TPO enhances my confidence and gives an opportunity to learn and grow professionally. I feel the format of TPO is on a par with any international competition in the field of school education, subject expertise and learning. I urge the teaching community to be part of this unique learning experience," Khetrapal said.

Manisha Khetrapal

Gyaneshwaran Gomathinayagam from The Doon School, Dehradun, Sarika Chuni from Amity International School, Lucknow, Maya Chalissery from Vimala College in Thrissur, Samira Saheba from Kapila Khandwala College of Education in Mumbai and Thota Srinivas from Government School in Peddapalli were among the winners.

Chief executive officers, academics and government leaders came together on Wednesday to celebrate the winners. The 1000 Reliance Foundation Teacher Awards announced for the winners carry a cash prize of Rs 1 lakh to Rs 2,000 and a citation.

r
r
a
a s p c o
h
s i d
p
w
a
d
d
e
k
y
n
l
r t